

Brief outline about Recruitment Procedure including examination for selection on non-teaching positions against Advertisement No.: IITP/RECT/NT/01/2023 dated 20 April 2023

Technical Positions

In accordance with the Government of India (GoI) recruitment procedure for Group A, B and C positions, as applicable, the recruitment is proposed to be conducted in three stages and the same has been intimated to the applicants via letter and email along with display of proposed schedule on IIT Patna website.

A brief outline for candidature evaluation at different stages is stated herein below as a general information to the candidates/applicants to impart an overview to them and enable them prepare well.

Stage I: Tentative outline for MCQ based written test comprising 50-60 questions comprising of two hours duration.

1. Core subject related fundamentals
2. Laboratory Equipment (undergraduate/postgraduate level) awareness including principles, operation, troubleshooting etc.
3. Test of writing and communication skills
4. Aptitude needful and desirable for an academic institution

Stage II: Tentative outline for Core Competency (including performance in the laboratory) desirable for the position under advertisement.

1. Laboratory equipment and experiment handling aptitude
2. Scientific concepts related to experiments and subject
3. Data analysis and troubleshooting of lab instruments
4. Writing and comprehension
5. Drafting and report writing

Stage III (Group A positions): Personality evaluation on interaction by the selection committee comprising expert members.